The mission of Gilbert Talks is to foster constructive community dialogue around issues of importance in Gilbert for purposes of enriching understanding, motivating engagement, and promoting effective policymaking.
How civil is the discourse in your community?
Are opposing points of view valued in your community?
...constructive community dialogue

What is it?
issues of importance

What issues are “hot” in your community?
...issues of importance

Education?
...for purposes of enriching understanding, motivating engagement, and promoting effective policymaking.
Alan Fitzgerald
afitzgerald@gilberttalks.com